

Provision of Corporate Licence

The agreement allows the use of the data as follows: -

1. The use of the data by any employee of the licence holder for internal use.
2. Use by the licence holder on own Intranet facilities at full resolution.
3. Use by the licence holder on a .gov domain Web Site at full resolution.
Use of the data on any other Web Site is strictly prohibited.
4. Use of the data in the creation of internal documents.
5. Use of the data for illustration within non-profit making publicity material for the public.
6. Use of the data by third parties where formal Partnership Agreements exist for analysis and creation of documents and Publicity material for non-profit making activities. The data licence for the third party would end at the cessation of the Partnership.
7. Use of the data within Libraries (to members of the public for specific research purposes within a research area on one machine. Hard copy prints outs must be black and white only and no copying of the digital data is permitted.)
8. Use within licence holder educational establishments for teaching purposes.
9. The number of copies that can be made by the licence holder for internal use is unlimited.

Please note, any reproductions of the photography whether hard copy or digital must have the copyright statement 'Copyright GeoPerspectives' visible on or near the image.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Product shall remain the exclusive property of the Publishers Bluesky and Infoterra.